TERMS AND CONDITIONS

All applications are subject to the following terms and conditions:

A non-refundable deposit of £120.00 is required with your application. Full fees are due by 18 June 2010 and with any application after this date. We are sometimes able to accommodate non-participants during the week. Please contact us for details. Evening concerts are free and you are most welcome to invite family and friends along.

We regret that we are unable to offer a discount if you don't require accommodation.

Deposit payments are non-refundable. Balance payments are refundable, at our discretion, provided notice of cancellation is received more than two weeks prior to commencement of the course. Pro-rata refunds are not given if you are taken ill during the course and have to leave. We strongly advise you to insure against cancellation for illness or any other reason. Bookings will close on 12 July 2010 or before if we reach optimum numbers. We are unable to guarantee which course tutor your private lesson and/or master-classes will be with although students on the intensive flute course will be guaranteed a lesson with either Clare Southworth or Ian Clarke. We reserve the right to arrange grouped master-classes and/or private lessons if required. We will do our best to accommodate all requests. Participation in private lessons and/or master-classes will be confirmed when the course begins. Persons under the age of 18 will be supervised during the week. Minimum age of 14 required to attend as a residential student. We recommend the following minimum levels of ability in order to attend; performance flute and intermediate saxophone: grade 3, advanced saxophone: grade 7+, intensive flute: Ideally post grade 8. The course directors reserve the right to change venues, dates, tutors or course content without notice or obligation.
