

TEACHER'S DAY

Exploring the new ABRSM Flute Syllabus

Sunday 9th July 2017 10:00am to 4.30pm
Just Flutes, 46 South End, Croydon, CR0 1DP

Cost: FREE

(£5 deposit to book, refunded on the door)

Take a tour round the new ABRSM flute syllabus with Just Flutes catalogue editor Chris Hankin. She will expertly guide you through each grade, covering the main repertoire as well as highlighting hidden gems. It's also a chance for us to discuss any teaching issues that may be relevant to the new listings. This is an ideal CPD opportunity to get ahead before the summer break – then you really can put your feet up and relax!

from 9.30 Arrive

Meet like-minded teachers, swap stories and take a look at the music.

10:00 Early Grades 1-3

There will be plenty to discuss here, and focus will be on building a broad basis for progress at this important level.

11:15 Coffee

11:30 Intermediate Grades 4-5

As we know, success at teaching this more advanced level can often be measured by the appeal of the repertoire we choose for our students. We will be delving deep into the prescribed lists in this session!

1:00 Lunch

We have a table booked at Bagatti's Italian next door to the shop. Please let us know if you would like to join us! You can choose from the menu on the morning of the event. Approximate cost £15.

2:15 The Higher Grades 6-7

This session will focus on matching up technical skills to the choice of works. Working out what is needed for a good mark is vital here.

3:15 Tea

3:30 Grade 8 and Beyond.

The final part of our day will examine the Grade 8 list in detail and assess how useful these pieces might be in preparation for the new ARSM diploma.

And finally:

This is a day for discussion and the sharing of views. I hope we will all be able to learn from each other!
