

Wind Quintet Play Day

☆ french horn ☆ oboe ☆ clarinet ☆ flute ☆ bassoon ☆

with the Atéa Quintet

Come and be part of this exciting opportunity to discover new music and meet other musicians.

Over the course of the day, brass and woodwind players from across Hampshire will form a unique ensemble. They will receive expert tuition from the Atéa Quintet tutors, take part in a variety of workshop sessions and perform in a concert to family and friends. The music chosen will be suitable for players of all standards and the day will run between 10.30am and 4pm at Barton Peveril Sixth Form College, Eastleigh, SO50 5ZA. Tickets are £15.

For family and friends to attend the end of day concert at 3.15pm a ticket must have been purchased in advance, these cost £3 and are available online along with the full day admission tickets.

The Atéa Quintet is the foremost British Wind Quintet of their generation. Internationally acclaimed, they became double prize winners at the 2015 Carl Nielsen International Chamber Music Competition in Denmark. As the Associate Ensemble in Residence at the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire and former Quintet in Residence at the Purcell School, they regularly mentor some of the finest up and coming musicians in the country.

Since its formation in 2009, the Atéa Quintet has performed in some of the finest halls in the world including a critically acclaimed Friday night recital at the Wigmore Hall, performances at the Cheltenham, Brighton and Lake District Summer Festivals and concerts in St Martin in the Fields, Bridgewater Hall and St Johns Smith Square.

Brought together by their communal love of wind chamber music the Atéa Quintet look forward to sharing their passion with you! For further details of the day and to book visit: www.ticketsource.co.uk/hampshiremusic

Instrument technique

Masterclasses

Tips and advice

Ensemble playing

End of day concert

